Theatre, Haymarket, Feb. 17, 1794.

WHEN the late dreadful Accident happened at this Theatre, by which upwards of twenty Engliſh Men and Women were trampled to Death, it was ſaid that THEIR MAJESTIES were not acquainted with it.

Did THEY know it on Tueſday the Fourth Inſtant, when HER MAJESTY had her Rout?

Did THEY know it on Wedneſday the Fifth, when THEY went to the Ancient Muſick, Tottenham-Court Road?

Did THEY know it on Monday the 10th, when THEY went to Covent-Garden Theatre?

Do THEY know it now?

Did THEY not ſuſpend Public Amuſements, and order Mourning for the Death of Louis, the avowed Enemy of this Country?

Which of theſe Circumſtances ought to have cauſed the moſt public Demonſtrations of SORROW?
